

Bio David Baggs

Chartered Architect, LFAIA, ABSA, Green Star AP, LEED AP, MACS Past President, Australian Life Cycle Assessment Society (ALCAS)

CEO and Program Director Global GreenTag International Pty Ltd

CEO of Global GreenTag International and Program Director of Global GreenTag^{Cert™}, David Baggs has led Global GreenTag to become one of the most advanced product certification services and marks in the world for the sustainable building industries; including being named one of the Top 100 Most Trusted Building Sector Brands in Australia..

David Baggs is also a multi-award winning green building architect and renowned for being the materials, energy and sustainability consultant for the build of the Sydney 2000 green Olympics and many other benchmark green building projects since. His experience in the green building sector spans 40 years and he was voted one of Australia's Top 50 Green Leaders and one of the Top 100 Sustainability Leaders Globally in a six continent poll. David is also an Exemplar Global Lead Auditor and a Past President of the Australian Life Cycle Assessment Society.

For more background about David and the history of the Global GreenTag Certification Program, read this article by Rate It Green